Dear Ms. Zavala:

We have found an error on two of the STC's that were reissued to us when we moved from Pflugerville to Round Rock in October, 1996. The STC's are SA09171AC for the Cessna 501 and 551; and SA09173AC for the Beech 200 series aircraft.

On STC number SA09171AC, the Type Certification Number needs to be corrected. Under the heading "Original Product Type Certificate Number", the TC Number should be A27CE for the Cessna 501 and 551.

On STC number SA09173AC, the Master Drawing List needs to be corrected. Under the heading "Description of Type Design Change", the Master Drawing List should be ...182-00-0001, dated 10-09-95 or later FAA approved revision.

We are requesting that the STC's be reissued with the correct TC number and Master Drawing List added. I have enclosed the original of the STC's for correction. Also, for your reference, I have enclosed a copy of the "old" STC's that was issued to us at our Pflugerville address. Please note that I have highlighted the changes.

Thank you for your help, and if you have any question, please call me at 512-388-4808.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Hurley
